Family Day weekend bowling fundraiser

A bowling event in recognition of Family Day is coming to town.

On Sunday, Feb. 20 (Family Day weekend) members of The Sian Bradwell Fund For Children With Cancer are staging a family fun bowling day.

The Rock 'N Bowl at Burlington Bowl, 4065 Harvester Rd., is from 2-5 p.m. Registration costs $15 per person and includes two games, shoe rental and applicable taxes. Pre-registration is required. There are two time slots for playing: 2 p.m. and 3:30 p.m.

Proceeds go towards purchasing medical equipment for the oncology department at McMaster Children's Hospital in Hamilton.

You can also help the McMaster Children's Hospital by collecting pledges and in doing so can win back your registration fee and gift certificates. Prizes will be awarded for the top individual fundraisers based on the level of donations collected. The top individual fundraiser and fundraising team will win tickets to a Hamilton Tiger-Cats CFL game plus gift certificates.

Light balls are available, so children as young as three and seniors can be accommodated. Participants are invited to bring their camera and meet members of the Hamilton Ticats.
