Sian Bradwell Fund looking for some bowlers

Next Saturday from 3 to 5 pm bowlers and fans can take part in the Strike Out Cancer event at Laurentian Lanes to benefit Sian Bradwell Fund, which helps in the purchase of medical equipment needed at the Montreal Children's Hospital oncology ward. There will be a special pre-bowling auction, with the highest bidding team getting CFL All-star the Angry Bird Ky Hebert as a member of their team. There will be a jewel of an auctioneer as Jewel 107 morning man Ted Bird will do the honours. Money will be raised in a variety of ways during the event so spectators as well as the participants can help the cause. Information, online registrations and donations can be made on the Facebook page SB Bowling Mtl.
