John Rennie High School will host a bevy of fundraising activities this weekend when the West Island Lakers Basketball Association will host the 17th annual Sian Bradwell/West Island Lakers All-Star Weekend. The two-day event will include a charity basketball game between the Montreal Alouettes, the John Abbott Islanders men's team and local celebrities at 2 p.m. The Bell Media Challenge will also feature the return of Sarah Steben and Tripoli studios putting on an all Bruno Mars dance show.

There will be a silent auction and raffles for numerous prizes including two tickets anywhere WestJet flies, three sets of hockey tickets, an autographed Raptors team basketball, an autographed Bulls team basketball, an autographed Brendan Gallagher jersey and picture, autographed pictures of Max Pacioretty, Alex Galchenyuk, Shea Weber, BBQ, foursomes for Beaconsfield Golf Course and Islemere Golf Club, a linear garage door opener with installation, a Patrice Bergeron autographed hockey stick as well as restaurant gift certificates including The Keg, 40 West, Townhall, Le Surcouf and Table 51.

The Sian Bradwell Fund was started in 1986, to help children with cancer and their families by purchasing medical equipment for diagnosis, treatment and research. Sian was an infant when she was diagnosed with a 'primitive neuroectodermal tumour' in her liver, spine and foot and she died a year later.

The main objective of the Fund is to purchase medical equipment and other items deemed necessary for better diagnosis and treatment of children with cancer.
