

STRIKEOUT CANCER BOWLING DAY FOR THE
MONTREAL CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

January 25th, 2020

The Strikeout Cancer Bowling Day is a day of fun for the whole family (or sports team or work team) while raising funds for the Montreal Children's Hospital.

All proceeds go towards purchasing priority medical equipment. Most of the time, the equipment is for treating children with cancer, but sometimes there is an urgent need for medical equipment for other children.

For example, one of the items purchased through the Sian Bradwell Fund in 2019 was hardware and software to connect the ROTEM equipment in the Operating Room to the clinical labs in the Research Institute. This allows medical staff to obtain blood information immediately and ensure that the right blood product is given to the patient as soon as possible.
