

Becket Players come through with cheques to three organizations

By Mike Cohen The Suburban

Oct 16, 2019

Officials from the Becket Players make a cheque presentation to the Montreal Children's Hospital Foundation.

The wonderful men and women behind the Becket Players distributed cheques to the three charities which benefitted from their musical production Hooked on a Feeling fundraiser last May: The Sian Bradwell Fund via the Montreal Children's Hospital Foundation, The West Island Association for the Intellectually Handicapped and Action Jeunesse de l'Ouest-de-l'île\(AJOI\) Based on the West Island, The Becket Players is a federally chartered long-standing non-profit organization dedicated to advance public's appreciation of the arts by providing the public with quality variety show with our proceeds going specifically for children's needs. Over 43 years they have raised more than $3.5 million to help children, locally by supporting their medical nutritional, and educational needs. Over 300 volunteers make up the backbone of the Becket Players.

The Becket Players are holding auditions for their 2020 production. They are seeking talent in all of the following disciplines: singers (male and female), actors (male and female), dancers (male and female) and band (all instruments). There are a few auditions dates remaining: Sunday Oct. 20 from 2 pm to 5 pm and Tuesday, Oct. 22 from 8:30 pm to 10 pm. This is not an open call so you need to book an audition slot by email to production@becketplayers.ca. All applicants must be at least 18 years old as of Oct, 1, 2019.