2022 Strike Out Cancer Bowling Event

Webster Financial is proud to be the new lead sponsor of the Strike Out Cancer bowling event, which was started by Sharon Bradwell over 10 years ago with sole objective of raising funds for the fight against cancer. The Webster Financial team lead by Andrew and Dave Webster have been asked to organize this years event and we are extremely excited to be taking over this amazing opportunity in order to carry on the tradition.

Similarly to years past, we are looking for individuals to organize teams of 4-6 bowlers. The goal of every participant is to raise a minimum of $100. In return, the sponsors will cover all of the cost of bowling, food and prizes.

We are looking to bring together families, friends, clients and anyone who would like to participate. We are honoured to be asked to carry this torch and we are so excited to see you all out there.
